JOINT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME REGARDING MOTION TO WITHDRAW

Respondents Empire United Lines Co., Inc. and Michael Hitrinov, together with Eric Jeffrey and Nixon Peabody, hereby move for an extension of time until January 15, 2017 of the due date for Empire and Mr. Hitrinov's response to Mr. Jeffrey's motion to withdraw, and for waiver of the requirement to file motions for enlargement seven days prior to the due date. 46 C.F.R. 502.102(a). The good cause for both requests is as follows:

The motion to withdraw was filed and served on November 16. Mr. Jeffrey and Mr.
 Hitrinov have since had extensive discussions regarding resolution of their differences, so that Mr. Jeffrey and Nixon Peabody may continue representing Empire and Mr. Hitrinov in this proceeding. We have made some progress, but additional time is required, especially given the imminent holidays and the travel schedules of Mr. Jeffrey and Mr. Hitrinov.

- 2. Given that the response time for the motion to withdraw was only seven days, it was virtually impossible to move for extension seven days in advance of the due date. In any event, we were not then sufficiently advanced in our discussions to make such a motion, especially as Mr. Jeffrey was out of town on business from shortly after the motion was filed until Friday, November 18.
- 3. It is recognized by movants that resolution of the underlying motion to withdraw is necessary before Mr. Jeffrey and Nixon Peabody may resume substantive work on this proceeding, especially in light of Mr. Jeffrey's and Mr. Hitrinov's respective travel schedules, which will make coordination on any such matters next to impossible. Accordingly, each of Movants reserves the right to re-open the question of withdrawal and/or move for a stay, if such work becomes necessary.

Respectfully submitted,

Eric Jeffrey
